ANGI Homeservices Promotes Michael Wanderer to Chief People Officer

September 12, 2019

Seasoned Leader Joins World-Class Executive Team, Bringing Nearly 20 Years of Talent Strategy and People Operations Experience

DENVER, Sept. 12, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Today, ANGI Homeservices (NASDAQ: ANGI) announced the promotion of Michael Wanderer to Chief People Officer, effective immediately. Previously SVP of People at Handy Technologies, which was acquired by ANGI Homeservices in October of 2018, Mr. Wanderer will now oversee global human resources, talent strategy and recruitment, retention and development at ANGI Homeservices, which includes leading brands HomeAdvisor and Angie's List in addition to Handy. Mr. Wanderer will report to ANGI Homeservices CEO Brandon Ridenour and follows the recent C-level appointments of Oisin Hanrahan to Chief Product Officer; Shannon Shaw to Chief Legal Officer and Jamie Cohen to Chief Financial Officer as ANGI Homeservices continues to build its world-class leadership team.

Today, ANGI Homeservices announced the promotion of Michael Wanderer to Chief People Officer.

"We are a global company leading the charge in an exciting and rapidly changing category – we need a leader like Michael to shape our people and talent strategy while also helping to drive a culture of innovation," said Brandon Ridenour, CEO of ANGI Homeservices. "At ANGI Homeservices our most important differentiator is our people and this is an investment we are making in our people. I'm thrilled Michael is joining our winning team as we continue to work to make home care effortless for everyone."

Mr. Wanderer brings a long and established career in human resources with diverse experiences, from leading people operations at large, well-established companies like Jefferies and Citigroup to scaling effective teams at younger start-ups like Handy. With Handy, he successfully introduced development frameworks, built an exceptional employee experience and is a major champion for the Handy culture.

"ANGI Homeservices' mission is to fundamentally change and improve how everyone cares for their homes. I love that I have the opportunity to apply my years of experience in people operations, career development and culture to foster the world-class teams that will make that happen," said Mr. Wanderer. "ANGI Homeservices already has a reputation as a top employer – I'm excited to build on this strength to define our next chapter of growth."
